PITCHES NO-HIT GAME.

Carroll Lets Sixth Down Hard in Short Contest.

Ninth defeated Sixth in the Sunday School League, 6 to 2, in a loosely pitched contest. Carroll pitched a no-hit game, the two runs scored by sixth being made on three errors and a sacrifice bunt in the last inning. Jones allowed only two hits, but his wildness proved his undoing. "Tommy" Harris was chased to the bench in the first inning for getting funny with the umpire. Score:

Southeast Y. M. C. A. Comes from Behind and Is Victor.

By a fine batting rally in the last inning, the Southeast Y. M. C. A. yesterday overcame a lead of one run and won the game. Score, 3 to 2. Herrell, for the winners, twirled in good form, fanning thirteen of the batters and allowing but five scattered hits. Bullock also pitched a good game and deserved a better fate. Arundel Boat Club's senior double, of Baltimore, composed of Kronsberger and Howard, has caused no little surprise among the officials by not entering the regatta. This crew was looked upon to put up a good fight for the premier honors in their event. The reason for this turn of affairs is that Kronsberger has not been able to get into proper trim, owing to his business, and rather than enter the race out of condition, he told his partner that he would not be able to row, and as Howard has been unable to obtain a shipmate, the race was called off.

The Arundel four-oared shell is not sparing any pains in getting into condition, for yesterday they entered an impromptu regatta on the Severn River, and surprised their coaches by the form they displayed. The senior four is rowing as follows: Hoos, Stoll, Oehl, and Parker. Entered in this race against them is the Minnesota Boat Club, of St. Paul, Minn., the Nassau Boat Club, of New York, and the local four-oared aggregation.

The entire list of entries will be announced Monday in The Washington Herald.

Special Private Delivery.JOE GANS REACHES
BALTIMORE--TO DIEFormer Champion Taken to Home of His Mother.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 5.—"Joe" Gans got back home this afternoon—to die. A mere skeleton of his former sinewy self, unable to talk above a whisper, and absolutely helpless, the former light-weight champion of the world's prize ring was lifted tenderly on a cot from out the drawing room of a sleeper attached to the Pennsylvania Limited, which reached Union Station at 3:30 o'clock.

"Al" Herford, the fighter's former manager, was there with a private ambulance to take his dying protégé to the home of Gans' mother in Argyle avenue.

According to Dr. Southworth, who came all the way across the country with Gans from Prescott, Ariz., the former pugilist may live a week or ten days yet, but his doom as a victim of tuberculosis is sealed.

Gans showed remarkable rallying powers after leaving Chicago. While in that city it was necessary to pump oxygen into him almost continually, and his life seemed to be hanging almost by a single thread. Once started on the last lap of his run to Baltimore, however, he showed such a marked change as to astonish the doctor and other members of the party.

As the train neared Baltimore a smile of hope played across the thin lips of the prostrate man. "I'll soon be there. Then I can die peacefully. That's all I want now—just to get to good old Baltimore again and say good-by to the folks."

GAME ENDS IN SCRAP.

Umpire Murphy Attacked by Excited Fans and Saved by Police.

Yesterday's Olympia League game between the Olives and St. Stephen's teams will not be forgotten by the Georgetown fans in a hurry. Not only was there enough peppy baseball in the seven innings played, but something else was added as a dessert—umpireing and, and they did mob him. If the police had not interfered when they did, Mr. Murphy would have been a has-been.

St. Stephen's took the game from the Olives, 4 to 3. The contest was a pitchers' battle between Kidwell and McDonough, with honors about even. Although hit harder, McDonough was more effective with men on base, allowing bunched hits to score. Score:
